Item 6. Contracts, Arrangements, Understandings or Relationships with Respect to Securities of the Issuer

A. Initial Securities Purchase Agreement

On April 10, 2007, TCP, TMF and the Company entered into the Initial Securities Purchase Agreement which, among other things, provided for the purchase by TCP and TMF of shares of Common Stock and Senior Subordinated Promissory Notes of the Company. The closing of the transactions contemplated by the Initial Securities Purchase Agreement occurred on May 18, 2007. Under the Initial Securities Purchase Agreement, so long as the Reporting Persons (i) hold between 7.5% and 14.9% of the Common Stock then outstanding, they have the right to appoint one nominee to the Company's Board of Directors and (ii) hold at least 15.0% of the Common Stock then outstanding, they have the right to appoint two nominees to the Company's Board of Directors. On July 21, 2008, Mr. Cerulli, the Reporting Persons' nominee, was appointed to the Company's Board of Directors. Mr. Cerulli was appointed to fill a newly-created position on the Board and will serve for a term expiring at the 2009 Annual Meeting of Shareholders or until a successor is duly elected and qualified. It is expected that Mr. Cerulli will be appointed to serve as a member of the Corporate Governance and Nominations Committee and the Compensation Committee. Mr. Cerulli will not be compensated for his services as a director or committee member. As of the date hereof, the Company has not appointed a second nominee of the Reporting Persons to the Company's Board of Directors. Under the Initial Securities Purchase Agreement, the Company agreed to limit, by the date of the Company's 2008 Annual Meeting of Shareholders, the number of directors serving on its Board to no more than nine directors for so long as the Reporting Persons have the right to appoint a director to the Company's Board. In addition, pursuant to the Initial Securities Purchase Agreement, the Company approved the acquisition by the Reporting Persons of up to 40% of its outstanding Common Stock, on a fully diluted basis, such that the Reporting Persons would not be subject to certain restrictions set forth in the Indiana Business Corporation Law (the "IBCL"). The Company also agreed that it would not revoke such approval and that it will use its best efforts to ensure that any future acquisitions by TCP and TMF (up to 40% of the outstanding Common Stock on a fully diluted basis) would not be subject to anti-takeover provisions included in any of the Company's organizational documents or the laws and regulations of any governmental authority. The Initial Securities Purchase Agreement also contained standard representations and warranties that survive until the earlier of (i) three years following the closing date of the transactions contemplated by the Initial Securities Purchase Agreement and (ii) the applicable statute of limitations with respect to each representation and warranty.

B. March 2008 Securities Purchase Agreement

On March 10, 2008, the Company, TCP and TMF entered into the March 2008 Securities Purchase Agreement, pursuant to which, on March 12, 2008, TCP and TMF purchased shares of Common Stock from the Company. Pursuant to the March 2008 Securities Purchase Agreement, the parties affirmed certain rights granted to TCP and TMF under the Initial Securities Purchase Agreement related to the right of TCP and TMF to appoint members of the Company's Board of Directors and the Company's obligations to limit the size of its Board of Directors. These rights and obligations are set forth in greater detail in the description of the Initial Securities Purchase Agreement above. The Company also agreed that it would use its best efforts to ensure that the acquisition of the shares purchased under the March 2008 Securities Purchase Agreement would not be subject to anti-takeover provisions included in any of the Company's organizational documents or the laws and regulations of any governmental authority. The March 2008 Securities Purchase Agreement also contained standard representations and warranties that survive until the earlier of (i) three years following the closing date of the transactions contemplated by the March 2008 Securities Purchase Agreement and (ii) the applicable statute of limitations with respect to each representation and warranty. Pursuant to the Registration Rights Agreement (as defined below), the shares of Common Stock purchased by TCP and TMF pursuant to the March 2008 Securities Purchase Agreement are eligible to be registered for resale.

C. 2008 Standby Purchase Agreement and Amendment

On March 10, 2008, TCP, TMF and the Company entered into a Standby Purchase Agreement, which agreement was amended on April 8, 2008 by the First Amendment to Standby Purchase Agreement (as so amended, the "2008 Standby Purchase Agreement"), pursuant to which TCP and TMF agreed to certain standby commitments with regard to the Company's planned rights offering to its shareholders in June 2008 (the "Rights Offering"). Pursuant to the 2008 Standby Purchase Agreement, on June 20, 2008 and June 26, 2008, TCP and TMF purchased in a private placement (i) their pro rata portion of the shares of Common Stock offered by the Company in the Rights Offering, and (ii) all shares of Common Stock that were not purchased by the Company's other shareholders at the close of the Rights Offering. Pursuant to the Registration Rights Agreement, the shares of Common Stock purchased by TCP and TMF pursuant to the 2008 Standby Purchase Agreement are eligible to be registered for resale. In connection with the transactions contemplated by the 2008 Standby Purchase Agreement, the Company's board adopted irrevocable resolutions approving and exempting TCP's and TCM's purchase of Common Stock pursuant to the 2008 Standby Purchase Agreement from the anti-takeover restrictions of the IBCL. The 2008 Standby Securities Purchase Agreement also contained standard representations and warranties that survive the closing of the transactions contemplated by the 2008 Standby Securities indefinitely.

D. Company's Amendment of Rights Agreement

In connection with the acquisition of shares of Common Stock by Tontine pursuant to the Initial Securities Purchase Agreement, the Company amended its Rights Agreement, dated March 21, 2006 with National City Bank, as Rights Agent (as amended, the "Rights Agreement"), to permit the consummation of the transactions contemplated by the Initial Securities Purchase Agreement. On March 18, 2008, the Company further amended the Rights Agreement to exempt Tontine and its affiliates and associates.

E. Amended and Restated Registration Rights Agreement

On May 18, 2007, TCP, TMF and the Company entered into an Amended and Restated Registration Rights Agreement (the "Registration Rights Agreement"). Pursuant to the Registration Rights Agreement, the Company is required to file a shelf registration statement and grant to TCP and TMF (and their qualifying transferees) certain demand and "piggyback" registration rights in connection with shares of Common Stock held by them or acquired in the future. The registration rights granted under the Registration Rights Agreement terminate with respect to TCP and TMF (and any of their qualifying transferees) when such party no longer holds any Registrable Securities (as defined in the Registration Rights Agreement). With the exception of certain expenses, such as underwriting discounts and commissions, the Company has agreed to pay all expenses incident to its performance of or compliance with the Registration Rights Agreement, including the reasonable fees and expenses of counsel retained by the holders of Registrable Securities requested to be included in a registration statement.

The foregoing summaries of the Initial Securities Purchase Agreement, the March 2008 Securities Purchase Agreement, the 2008 Standby Purchase Agreement and the Registration Rights Agreement do not purport to be complete and are qualified in their entirety by reference to Exhibits 1 through 5, which are incorporated by reference herein.

Except as described in the Schedule 13D, the Reporting Persons do not have any contracts, arrangements, understandings or relationships (legal or otherwise) with any person with respect to any securities of the Company, including but not limited to the transfer or voting of any of the securities, finder's fees, joint ventures, loan or option arrangements, puts or calls, guarantees of profits, division of profits or losses, or the giving or withholding of proxies.
